UNIT 10 QUIZ B AUDIO SCRIPT

Listening 1 Exercise A

Good afternoon, everyone. Your college has kindly invited me here today to speak about our company, Harper Nelson, and about possible career opportunities you may be interested in.

As you might know, Harper Nelson is a well-established and prestigious financial advisory company. We are, and have been for many years, one of the most respected companies dealing with finance in the United States and abroad.

Now … you may think that you could only get a job at such a prestigious company after you've had some experience elsewhere, but that is not what we believe at Harper Nelson. At our company, we firmly believe that encouraging young professionals and enabling them to develop their new, creative ideas is the most effective way of moving forward and into the future.

At Harper Nelson we are always interested in employing recent graduates, as you all will be next year. If you come to work for us, we will offer you great opportunities for fast career progression through a variety of financial and legal jobs available. As recent graduates, for example, you will receive training in different areas of the business and will have the opportunity to work in different departments before choosing the one you most identify with. And, at Harper Nelson, no one will ever force you to stay in a department or in a position you don't enjoy. If you are not happy, there will always be the possibility of moving to a different one.

We are also very proud of our offices and the benefits we offer. If you come to Harper Nelson, you'll have bright spaces to work in, modern technology to work with, competitive salaries, great health insurance, and even low-cost meals prepared by chefs at the company restaurants.

So I do hope that you will consider us as a potential future employer when you start looking for a job. I'll leave on the table here some company brochures and my card. Please send me an email or call me if you are interested in learning more about all the career opportunities at Harper Nelson.
